

Bush Camp at Echo Creek

A Bush Camp at Echo Creek to learn about traditional plants and their uses was well attended by artists in March. Funded by Arts Queensland and supported by the Giringun Biodiversity program we spent three days talking about the environment and creating artworks which reflected what we saw and heard. A bush walk to the Echo Creek healing pond led by Ernie Grant was followed by a swim in the freezing cold water for those brave enough to venture in.

Group Photo

Prepared by Valerie Keenan, Art Centre Manager